Dear Sir/Madam,

The appeal against the Chief Commons Commissioners' decision on Broxhead Common East by Mr P Whitfield, commenced in the Appeal Court in the Law Court, in the Strand, London on 11th Nov 1976, lasting 3 days and was adjourned. Mr John Mills, representing the Commoners, requested time to study the findings of Mr Justice Fosters' decision on the appeal against the Commissioners Decision on Yateley Common (Hants) by the owner who runs Blackbush Airport on the Common.

It is expected that Mr Mills will be ready to put the Broxhead Case before Mr Justice Brightman about the middle of January 1977.

If you can spare the time, I know you would like listening to Mr Mills, and I hope you will support him by your presence.

Yours faithfully,

J.H. Ellis.
Chairman.
